SOUNDS PERFECT

Primary lock up with core tagline. This lock up is the preferred logo for the state and should be used whenever possible.

Clear space and minimum sizing. When scaling, adhere to size minimums. If exceeding, special permission must be granted.

When Tennessee Sounds Perfect appears in typeset, it should always be capitalized and italicized.

If italics are not available, place quotation marks around the phrase, i.e., "Tennessee Sounds Perfect."

When used, the phrase "Sounds Perfect" should always come after the word "Tennessee" as a final signoff. It should not be used independently or used out of order with "Tennessee".

When locking up the above lock up with your partner logo, ensure optical alignment, equity and ample clear space. The Tennessee logo should have equal prominence.
